From the Pastor

College Day @ FBC

Please help me to welcome all of the students and families from Georgia Southern and other area colleges who are with us today. As a part of "College Day," we invite all college students to enjoy lunch in the Perry Fellowship Hall following the 11:00am service. Each year our church is able to impact the lives of countless students, so help us communicate our love and concern for these young adults as they spend their time on campus and across Statesboro.

Discover FBC - Q&A with the Pastor

Have you been attending First Baptist Church for a few weeks or months and want to know a little more about this congregation? If so, plan to attend "Discover FBC" on Sunday, August 27. I personally lead this informal Q & A time, and it allows newcomers an opportunity to know my heart and my personal journey of faith. We'll also talk about FBC, answer questions, and provide some good information that most people want to know.

There's no need to sign up in advance for Discover FBC—just show up on August 27 at 10:00am in the Averitt Room, located downstairs on Level 1. Enter at the covered, circular drive-thru entrance at the rear and look for the signs. I look forward to seeing you there.

Parenting Workshop - August 16

Have you made plans to attend the Parenting Workshop this Wednesday, August 16, at 6:30pm in the Perry Fellowship Hall? Steve Parr, author of Why They Stay, will be our guest leader, and he will discuss the reasons why some children stay in the church when they reach college and young adulthood, and why some don't. If you have children or grandchildren that you want to stay strong in the faith, then this special evening is just for you.

Come early for our midweek meal (normal costs apply), or just show up at 6:30pm for the Parenting Conference after supper. Bring some friends and guests as we all learn together.
