From the Pastor

The Mystery and Magic of Marriage

The most wondrous of all human relationships is the marriage relationship. Two individuals are forged into one, and they journey through life facing all of the joys and sorrows that are part of this life. As part of our "Fixer Upper" theme for the next two weeks, I will share a two-part message entitled, "God's Blueprint for Marriage."

Whether you are looking to be married one day, currently in a marriage relationship, or perhaps hoping to remarry, understanding God's clear instructions about marriage is essential. God provides the foundations and guardrails that make marriage a wonderful journey, and I look forward to exploring God's truths over these next two weeks.

Discover FBC - Q & A with the Pastor

Have you been attending First Baptist Church for a few weeks or a few months and want to know more about this church? If so, you will want to attend "Discover FBC," which is a one-session class that I personally lead for those new to our community or church.

This informal Q & A time will allow me to share my heart and personal journey with you, but it will also allow you to learn more about church ministries, opportunities to serve, and other "questions people are afraid to ask."

We will meet next Sunday, August 27, at 10:00am in the Averitt Room. To find the Averitt Room, simply enter the building complex at the rear circular, drive-thru entrance, and signs will direct you to the Averitt room.

There's no need to call in advance for Discover FBC, just show up next week at 10:00am, and we'll be ready for you. I look forward to seeing you there.
