From the Pastor

Thanks to Keith Hagan

I am away this weekend attending the national meeting of our Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas, Texas, and I appreciate Keith Hagan preaching for me. As our administrative pastor, Keith provides oversight to much of the ministry and management of our work at First Baptist Church Statesboro, and he is a crucial part of our staff team and effectiveness. Please encourage him as he preaches today.

Been Attending FBC Recently?

If you've been attending First Baptist Church for a while, you will want to attend the Discover FBC class set for Sunday, June 24, at 10:00 am in the Averitt Room, located on Level 1 near the entrance of the circular covered drive through. I host this class myself, and this one-session Q&A time allows newcomers to hear from me personally and to learn more about First Baptist Church. We'll talk about the unique nature of First Baptist Church Statesboro, our staff and organizations, and the meaning of church membership. There's no need to pre-register—just show up that day and we'll be ready for you.

Baby Bottles—Making Change

As a part of our SENT 2021 emphasis, we are trying to impact our local community in transformative ways. The letter "T" of the SENT acrostic represents "Transforming Our Community," and your participation in the Baby Bottle "save and change" effort is one part of this. The money collected in the baby bottles will go to Choices of Heart ministry, which is a Christian clinic for local women. One of the goals of SENT 2021 is to give $100,000 back to the Bulloch County community, and the monies you provide through these baby bottles are part of that effort. Pick up a baby bottle in the lobby today and give generously; you'll help us achieve part of our SENT 2021 goal and also change lives in the process.
