From the Pastor

Happy Father's Day

Thank you for worshipping with us at First Baptist Church Statesboro on Father's Day. Families come in all shapes and sizes (just like dads), and we welcome you to this time of worship. No family is perfect, but we rely on God's grace as we journey together in this life. Whatever the circumstances of your family might be, I pray that this Father's Day will be a reminder of the people who have loved and helped you along in life, as well as reminder of our perfect Heavenly Father, who cares for us with an everlasting, unchanging love. To all the dads worshipping with us today, we say Happy Father's Day!

You're Invited to Discover FBC

If you've been attending First Baptist Church for a while, I invite you to attend Discover FBC next Sunday, June 24, at 10:00 am in the Averitt Room, which is located on Level 1 near the entrance of the circular covered drive through. I host this class myself, and this one-session Q&A time allows newcomers to hear from me personally and to learn more about First Baptist Church Statesboro. We'll talk about the unique nature of this congregation, our staff and organizations, and the meaning of church membership. There's no need to pre-register—just show up next Sunday and we'll be ready for you.

We will explore some of the following questions:

- What's the purpose of this church?
- Is there a place where I can serve?
- How is the money handled and spent?
- What difference can I make as a member?
- How do I maximize my involvement as a church member?
- What do Baptists believe?

Whether you've been attending for a few weeks or a few months, I invite you to join me for this time of learning and sharing together. See you next Sunday!

-- John Waters
