From the Pastor

Welcome College Students!

As the fall semester begins for area colleges, we welcome the return of students to Statesboro and to First Baptist Church. If this is your first Sunday to visit our church, or if you've been here previously, we welcome you to discover the many wonderful opportunities provided to strengthen your relationship with Jesus and to live out your faith in practical, authentic ways.

Following today's worship services, all college students are invited to a no-charge luncheon in Perry Fellowship Hall, located on Level 1 at the circular, drive-thru entrance. Our meal will consist of fried & baked chicken, macaroni & cheese, vegetables, and dessert. It is our way of welcoming you to this wonderful community called Bulloch County and to the loving people known as First Baptist Church Statesboro.

As the academic year unfolds, please allow our church congregation to encourage, support, and connect with you. We look forward to walking alongside you during this time and helping you either to start or strengthen your relationship with Jesus.

College Ministry Events

Each Sunday we offer a gathering of college students in the historic sanctuary, involving music, Bible study, and new friendships. Additionally, we are hosting a low country boil this Tuesday evening at the BCM Building as an additional welcome to students. Various other small groups studies, social gatherings, and missions opportunities are scheduled for this semester and next, so please explore the many ways you can take your next step of faith.

Volunteers for College Ministry

We are fortunate to have several excellent interns returning to First Baptist Church Statesboro to lead in our college ministry, as well as some key leaders from our congregation, but we gladly welcome additional volunteers to serve in this ministry area. If you have a heart for college students and want to serve in some manner within this ministry, please contact Keith Hagan at keith@fbc-statesboro.org to learn about the ways in which you can serve.
