From the Pastor

Georgia Southern Basketball

At our 11:00 am worship service today, we welcome the Georgia Southern Women's Basketball team and head coach Kip Drown. As the basketball season presses on through the fall, we have this wonderful opportunity to recognize and encourage the ladies on the team as well as the coaches and staff.

Coach Kip Drown and his wife Gina are faithful members of First Baptist Church Statesboro, so this special day gives us an opportunity to express our love, support, and prayers for them as well. We will host the team and guests for a luncheon following the service, so please help us to make them welcome as our special guests today.

Prayer Service Tonight - 6:00 pm

During our Evening Worship time at 6:00 pm tonight, we will have a "House of Prayer" service. In Matthew 21:13, Jesus said, "My house shall be called a house of prayer," so tonight's service provides an opportunity for us to join in extended prayer time for our church.

At the start of 2019, we will launch "100 Days of Prayer" as a church wide spiritual emphasis in discerning God's vision for our church. But let's not wait until the new year to start praying—let's start doing so now.

Prior to establishing strategies, staff structure, and outreach initiatives, we as a congregation need to seek God's face through prayer to hear His heart about our church's future. God's desire and will always supersede our own plans, so let's commit to a time of spiritual renewal bathed in prayer.

The "House of Prayer" service will continue next week (November 4) as well, so I hope you will be able to join us as we seek God's will through prayer each Sunday evening.

Church Conference

Immediately following our prayer service tonight, we will convene for a Church Conference, so I hope you will be able to participate in this time as well.
