From the Pastor

100 Days of Prayer - Beginning January 27

Launching next Sunday night is our 100 Days of Prayer. This church wide experience will help us clarify God's vision for First Baptist Church Statesboro and sense how He is working within this congregation. Prior to making any organizational decisions about the strategy, staffing, and structure of our church, we need to seek God's heart corporately through prayer, allowing Him to direct our thoughts, plans, and dreams.

We hope everyone will be a part of this process.

- Enlist two others to form your prayer team of three. This process is not designed for groups larger than three, so please limit your group to three.
- Submit the names of your prayer triplet via the card provided in the pew racks, remembering that we want men praying with men, women with women.
- Discuss where and when your prayer triplet will meet, knowing that all three members need to be present at all ten gatherings, which will take about 60 minutes each time.
- Attend the 100 Days of Prayer Kickoff on January 27 at 6:00 pm to receive your prayer notebook, containing the ten sessions that your prayer triplet will use for its ten gatherings.

Our goal is to have 100 prayer triplets, comprised of 300 people from all segments of our congregation. We want participation to be deep and wide, so please join this church wide spiritual process and form a prayer triplet for the 100 Days of Prayer. And I look forward to seeing you and your prayer partners at the kickoff next Sunday night at 6:00 pm in the Perry Fellowship Hall.

Church Conference this Afternoon

Our Church Conference is set for this afternoon at 5:00 pm in the Chapel. Adjusting our time and location in this way enables all interested persons to participate in the Church Conference, and then to transition to the concert that follows in the worship center by Karen Peck and New River.
