From the Pastor

100 Days of Prayer

I am hearing many good and exciting reports about the prayer triplets that are meeting all across our congregation. New friendships are being formed, hearts are being joined together, and we are seeking the Lord's guidance together. Surely good and wonderful things await a congregation that joins its heart together in prayer.

Where does God want First Baptist Church Statesboro to be in ten years? What does He want us to do? How do we see ourselves ten years from today? These and other questions will only be answered correctly as we join our hearts together in a unified effort seeking and clarifying God's vision for our church.

Before we make any organizational or program changes, we must make certain that God has given us a clear vision of where and what he wants us to do. There is no shortcut to this process, so we must be diligent and patient as we wait to be led by God's Spirit through prayer.

Valentine Banquet

I am looking forward to our annual Valentine Banquet tonight at 6 PM in the Perry Fellowship Hall. In addition to this being a wonderful evening that deepens our relationships and friendships, it provides us an opportunity to financially support the mission work of our student ministry. I trust you will come prepared to give generously to this special offering.

-- John Waters

Congratulations to Keith Hagan, Administrative Pastor at First Baptist Church Statesboro, on 10 years of service. His knowledge and leadership are invaluable assets to our church and community, and we celebrate this milestone with him.
