Discover FBC - March 31

If you've been attending First Baptist Church Statesboro for a few weeks or months, I hope you will attend the Discover FBC session that I will host on Sunday, March 31. This informal time of questions and answers will enable me to tell you more about myself and this church. It is a casual, one-session opportunity to learn more about First Baptist Church Statesboro and to consider if this might be the church home for you.

I will explain how this church works, who is eligible for church membership, and why we do certain things and not others. This is a "no strings attached" meeting with no obligation, so I hope you will join me for this special gathering.

We will meet in the Averitt Room at 10:00 am on March 31, which is located just inside the circular drive-thru entrance of the Perry Fellowship Hall. If needed, drop your children off at our secure preschool and children's area first, and then join us for in the Averitt Room. There's no need to call ahead - just follow the signs for Discover FBC, and we'll be ready for you.

100 Days of Prayer - Midpoint Gathering

I am looking forward to the Midpoint Gathering of our 100 Days of Prayer, set for tonight at 6:00 pm in the Perry Fellowship Hall. We will hear some testimonies about how God is working among some of the prayer triplets, and there will be table discussions about how we sense God's leadership up to this point. If you are part of a prayer triplet (or if you are just interested in what is happening), I hope you will make every effort to be present tonight. Childcare will be provided. God is working among us, and we will talk about that tonight.
