Easter Prayer Vigil

We are gearing up for a tremendous Easter week at First Baptist Church Statesboro, but don't forget to include the Easter Prayer Vigil in your plans. Starting after the Good Friday service on April 19, volunteers will pray through the night from 8:00pm until 8:00am in the Averitt Room.

What better way to prepare for Easter morning than by praying for our church and community during such a prayer vigil? Hosts will be onsite all through the night to provide information and a measure of security, so I invite you to sign up for a time slot in the Elevator Lobby.

We are learning through our 100 Days of Prayer that seeking the Lord's heart in prayer is crucial to everything we do. Don't miss this opportunity to grow in your personal prayer life by volunteering to be part of the Easter Prayer Vigil. Sign up today.

Church Conference - April 7

Good systems and good processes are important to a healthy church, and one such process is our Church Conference, set for next Sunday, April 7, at 5:00pm in the Chapel. Several items for discussion and decision will be presented during this meeting, so I encourage you to be a part of the decision-making process by attending the Church Conference.

Some of the items that will be presented include possible changes to our Constitution and Bylaws, the election of our Nominating Committee, the closure of selected designated Funds, and a recommendation from our Trustees about purchasing a nearby piece of property.

To participate in this process, make plans to attend the Church Conference next Sunday. There will be some other matters to consider in addition to what is listed above, so I hope will make effort to be present. Your thoughts, comments, and input will improve any decisions that we make.
