Easter Week

Tonight we kick off Easter week, which is full of wonderful opportunities for your family, friends, and neighbors. God has been working throughout our congregation during these 100 Days of Prayer, and I look forward to seeing His work among us during Easter week.

Plan now to bring a guest to one of these events:

- Palm Sunday Night of Worship—our gathering tonight will be a tremendous time to focus on Jesus, who is “the Reason” we celebrate. Our congregation and choir will sing, testimonies will be shared, and we will focus on God’s Word as we worship tonight. I’ve been looking forward to this Night of Worship for quite some time, and I encourage you not to miss it.
- Easter Eggztravaganza—On Wednesday, we will all gather in and around the Perry Fellowship Hall for a family and children’s event. There will be bunny pictures, inflatables, egg hunts, and lots of fun, so bring your family and help us greet the many guests that come to this community-focused event.
- Good Friday Night of Worship—the Friday before Easter is our time to focus our hearts and minds on the death and suffering of Jesus. Through His death on the cross, He bore the wrath of God we deserved, so this somber worship experience reminds us of His suffering. We will observe the Lord’s Supper as a part of this formal, emotional service. Start time is 6:30pm. Child care is provided.
- Easter Sunday—our altered schedule will allow three morning worship services at 8:00am, 9:15am, and 10:30am (no Sunday School classes will meet). We will celebrate the glorious truth of Jesus’s resurrection and the assurance of life that comes from Him. Bring your family and a guest, and let’s honor the Risen and Resurrected Lord.
