From the Pastor

As part of my responsibilities as a trustee of the International Mission Board, I am in Mongolia and Korea over the next week and a half, visiting our missionaries who are serving there. For the past two years, I've led the IMB's trustee work with East Asia People, which represents nearly one-fourth of the global population. Visiting our missionaries on the field gives me and other trustees an opportunity to encourage our personnel and to become more acquainted with their day to day ministries. Please pray for me as we extend the ministry of First Baptist Church Statesboro across the globe in this way. I look forward to being back with you next Sunday.

Dr. Nathan Finn Preaching

Preaching in my absence today is Dr. Nathan Finn, a longtime friend who is currently the Provost and Dean of the Faculty at North Greenville University in South Carolina. I've known Nathan and his wife, Leah, since they were college students at Brewton-Parker College, and the Lord has used them in wonderful ways throughout His kingdom. You will find Dr. Finn to be exceptionally gifted with a winsome personality. I trust you will warmly welcome him and his family as our guests in Statesboro today.

Spring Missions Offering

We are currently receiving our Spring Missions Offering, which is divided equally between the Georgia Baptist Mission Board and the North American Mission Board. Your gifts will be used to fund ministries throughout our state, as well as to support church planting across the nation. Give generously, knowing that every dime and dollar will be sent away to invest in these ministries.

National Day of Prayer

This Thursday, May 2, is the National Day of Prayer. Our community will gather on the lawn of the Bulloch County Courthouse at 12:00pm for a brief prayer service, and I encourage you to participate.
