From the Pastor

100 Days of Prayer

Tonight we have our Ending Celebration to the 100 Days of Prayer that we began in January. This time of prayer has spanned four months, and we've seen hundreds of people cluster in prayer triplets, getting to know each other and the Lord better. We've heard stories of new friends and renewed faith, accompanied by a spirit of excitement about how the Lord is working throughout First Baptist Church Statesboro.

The prayer triplets have been discussing and praying about three possible vision scenarios, and the process concluded with each prayer triplet submitting their responses last week. Tonight at 6:00 pm in the Perry Fellowship Hall, the Vision Team will share the compilation of what hundreds of participants said. Dr. George Bullard, our consultant, was in town last week assisting with this summary and compilation process, and you can hear the results at the Ending Celebration tonight.

The Lord taught me many things through this 100 Days of Prayer. He deepened my commitment and love for you and your family, as well as for this wonderful congregation. Cynthia and I are extremely blessed to be investing our lives in Bulloch County, which we love dearly, and we look forward to the years that await us.

Special Guest

During our morning worship services, we have a special guest from Nepal, using the name "Radford Bagby." He and his family are Southern Baptist missionaries working with Tibetan Buddhists, so we are taking security precautions to conceal his full identity. Please do not post his picture on any social media platforms, and please use discretion when describing his work to others.

Cynthia and I met "Mr. Bagby" a couple of years ago on our trip to Nepal, and we spent time in his home, learning about the tremendous work he is doing. Let's pray for him and his family as he shares his story today.
