Baby Bottles Making a Difference

Across our country today, there is a raging debate about the value of unborn children. Some people believe that unborn children have no rights, while others believe they are real persons deserving of full protection. This is an emotionally-charged debate, with lives hanging in the balance. I trust that you understand that God is the giver of all life—including unborn life—and that every child deserves life, protection, and respect.

You can make a difference in this debate by taking one of the baby bottles provided for "Save & Change" and returning it with monies to be given to Choices of the Heart, a pregnancy resource center in Statesboro. Facebook debates, billboards, and office arguments rarely change someone's minds and often have little impact. But the money you provide to Choices of the Heart will enable real services to real women facing real decisions—all in our local community. Be generous in your gifts, knowing that the lives of women, men, and their children can be changed through your contributions.

Southern Baptist Convention Messengers

The voting attendees at the annual Southern Baptist Convention are called "messengers," and First Baptist Church Statesboro is authorized to provide credentials to any church members who want to attend this meeting. The Southern Baptist Convention will meet June 10-12, in Birmingham, Alabama, so please contact the Church Office if you wish to be credentialed as a voting member to this denominational gathering.

God's Vision & God's Future Story

On June 9, we will take time to hear more about what you and other members of our congregation said about God's future story for our church. A nine-person writing team, led by Bill Stubbs, is drafting a narrative based upon your responses from the 100 Days of Prayer, and it will describe God's vision as recorded in the responses and participation from our congregation during this church-wide process.
