From the Pastor

Thank You for Volunteering

One of the characteristics of a healthy church is the willingness among the members to volunteer when a need arises. You have responded so well to our call for 101 volunteers for the Go Georgia conference being hosted in our facilities August 23-24. We announced a couple of weeks ago that just over one hundred volunteers were needed to host attendees from across our state, and many of you quickly volunteered to do your part. We still need additional volunteers, and I look forward to seeing how our wonderful church members step forward to be "counted on."

Go Georgia is sponsored by our Georgia Baptist Mission Board, and it is a comprehensive training conference with breakout sessions in all areas of church ministry and programming. We expect nearly 1,000 attendees over those two days in August, and our volunteers will help with registration, greeting, parking lot, and hospitality. If you are a volunteer, you are able to attend the conference sessions at no charge, or you can register as an attendee. Visit fbcboro.church to sign up either way.

Dave Parker, Missions Pastor

I am grateful that Dave Parker, our missions pastor, agreed to preach for me today while I am away on a family trip. Dave and Yvonne have deep roots in this area and with First Baptist Church Statesboro, and his experience as a pastor and international missionary have been a great blessing to our church. The Lord is using Dave and Yvonne to strengthen our missions program and to involve many people on a variety of missions experiences.

Cynthia and I are grateful for the chance to slip away with our family, but we certainly will miss being with you at First Baptist Church Statesboro this weekend. Please pray for Dave as he leads in my absence, and we look forward to being with you next week.
