Go Georgia - August 23 & 24

We are only a few weeks away from hosting Go Georgia, a comprehensive training conference sponsored by our Georgia Baptist Mission Board. Churches from all across the state will be coming to Statesboro to participate in the breakout sessions that deal with almost every area of church ministry, and we want to be an excellent host while they are onsite.

Can we count on you to be one of the 100+ volunteers needed to serve in registration, greeting, parking lots, and hospitality on that Friday night and/or Saturday morning? Many of you have already volunteered (thank you!), but we still need more people if your schedule allows.

As a benefit of volunteering, you may attend the conference sessions at no charge when you are not on duty. All others will pay a $45 registration fee. Thank you for helping our church warmly host and welcome the many visitors we will have during the Go Georgia Conference. To register as a volunteer or attendee, visit fbcboro.church.

FBC Family Night at Splash in the Boro - July 28

Has the Lord brought an unchurched person or family into your web of personal relationships? Perhaps a new neighbor? Golfing buddy? Coworker? Parents of a child on the same sports team as your child? Our Family Night at Splash is a perfect invite opportunity for you to use in personally introduce an unchurched family to our congregation in a fun, relaxed way.

Pick up one of the entrance tickets today to give to another family and bring them as your guest next Sunday night.

Church Conference; 5:00 pm in Chapel

Your input and participation are needed in our Church Conference this afternoon at 5:00 pm in the Chapel. Various committees of our church will bring several important recommendations, so I hope you will be present to be a part of the decision-making process.

THE PROCLAIMER

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Rhon Carter, Music and Worship Pastor, on 5 years of service. Rhon is a vital part of our staff at First tBaptist Church Statesboro and we are grateful for his servant's heart as he leads us in worship each Sunday. His commitment to our congregation and this community shines through each week. We are blessed to have him as part of our team.

Congratulations to Kim Salter, Administrative Assistant to Children and Adult Ministries, on 5 years of service. Kim has faithfully served these two ministries and continues to provide great support to the variety of programs they offer. Her skills have proven to be a valuable asset to FBC, and we are thankful for her personal commitment and hard work.
