From the Pastor

Discover FBC – November 17

If you have been attending First Baptist Church Statesboro for a few weeks or several months, then I invite you to join me for an informal question and answer session, entitled Discover FBC. I personally host this 45 minute session several times a year so that newcomers can get to know me and this congregation better.

People also regularly have questions about the commitment of church membership, such as: What does it mean to be a church member? Who is eligible, and who is not? Do I have to be baptized? Can I attend without being a member? These questions and more will be discussed at Discover FBC as part of our “no strings attached” session.

We will meet on Sunday, November 17, at 10:00 am in the Averitt Room, which is located on Level 1 near the Perry Fellowship Hall entrance. Use the circular drive-through entrance at the rear of the complex, and you will see the signs directing you to the room for Discover FBC. There’s no need to call ahead and make reservations; just show up, and we’ll be ready for you next Sunday.

The Process of Discipleship

In just a couple of weeks, our prayer triplets will be concluding their ten-week prayer experience. Each prayer triplet will complete the final form that provides their insights about the essential elements of a discipleship process for our church. The information from the prayer triplets, as well as what we received from our Sunday School leaders at a previous meeting, will be used to develop our church’s process of discipleship.

Providing people an easy-to-understand process or pathway, for spiritual growth is crucial as First Baptist Church Statesboro lives out the Great Commandment and the Great Commission. Thank you for participating in this venture and for submitting your thoughts, ideas, and insights as we develop a discipleship pathway together.

-- John Waters
