Fruit of the Spirit - Peace

Even though age-level events and our midweek supper are canceled this Wednesday, I will still teach the next part of our Bible study series on the Fruit of the Spirit. We are working our way through the list in Galatians of nine evidences of the Holy Spirit's work in our lives. We've already considered the first two—love and joy—and this week we will look deeply into peace. Where does peace come from? How is it possible to have peace amid brokenness and pain? What do you do if you can't find peace? If your schedule allows, join us in Heritage A this Wednesday at 6:30 pm as we continue our study on the Fruit of the Spirit.

Discover FBC: February 23

If you have been attending First Baptist Church Statesboro for a few weeks or several months, then I invite you to join me next Sunday for an informal question and answer session, entitled Discover FBC. I personally host this 45-minute session several times a year so that newcomers can get to know me and this congregation better.

People also regularly have questions about the commitment of church membership. What does it mean to be a church member? Who is eligible, and who is not? Do you have to be baptized? Can you serve without being a member? These questions and more will be discussed at Discover FBC as part of our "no strings attached" session.

We will meet next Sunday, February 23, at 10:00 am in the Averitt Room, located on Level 1 inside the Perry Fellowship Hall building. Enter at the circular drive-through at the rear of the complex at Entrance E, and you will see the signs directing you to the designated room. There's no need to call ahead and make reservations; just show up, and we'll be ready for you.
