From the Pastor

Eric Rentz, Guest Speaker

While Cynthia and I are away this weekend for our 36th wedding anniversary, I've asked my friend, Eric Rentz, to preach for me today. Currently serving as a missions consult with the Georgia Baptist Mission Board, Eric is a longtime pastor with a heart for God's people and the local church. I first met Eric when he was pastoring First Baptist Church Ludowici, and I've seen God use him in tremendous ways in that community, our state convention, and throughout His Kingdom.

Some of you may remember Eric from several years ago when he was our guest speaker at our Wild Game Supper, and I am glad that his schedule allowed him to be at First Baptist Church Statesboro today. I trust you will receive him warmly and listen attentively as he preaches God's Word this morning.

New Message Series Next Week

Next Sunday, I begin a new message series entitled, "Jesus in His Own Words." On multiple occasions in the Gospel of John, Jesus made clear statements about His role, identity, and purpose, beginning those statements with the phrase, "I am . . ."

We will explore these statements of Jesus over the next several weeks:

- I am the Bread of Life (March 15)
- I am the Light of the World (March 22)
- I am the Door / the Good Shepherd (March 29)
- I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life (April 5)
- I am the Resurrection and the Life (April 12)
- I am the Vine (April 19)

I look forward to preaching these messages about "Jesus in His Own Words," and I pray you will be encouraged, challenged, and blessed as well.

-- John Waters

THE PROCLAIMER

CHURCHWIDE

Family Night Supper March 11

---Hamburger steak, mashed potatoes, english peas, salad, rolls, dessert.

Sunday Evenings

---For several months, the deacon body and ministerial staff have considered how our church schedule might best serve our commitment to disciple-making. Since beginning our vision process with Dr. George Bullard in the spring of 2018, we have utilized a flexible schedule on Sunday nights to provide opportunities for prayer groups, special programs, workshops, small groups, and training events. These were made possible by not having a regular Sunday night worship service.

Keeping a flexible schedule on Sunday nights opens opportunities for other disciple-making activities and creates margin in our church schedule that serves our church families well. We believe this approach to be helpful and effective for our church, so we will continue with this format for the foreseeable future.
